

4. El Musical Theatre

HISTORY: Former premises of the “Sociedad Musical Patronato Musical de Pueblo Nuevo del Mar”, the first musical society in The Canyamelar, and the oldest in Valencia, the current “Sociedad Ateneo Musical del Puerto”. It was El Musical Theatre in 1924 and represented dramatic and lyric works. Later it became a cinema; “El Patronato”, “El Musical”, “El Tívoli”... It has been “El Musical Theatre” since 2004 after the refurbishment and restoration by the architect Miguel Arbonés, the façade was conserved and the highest door in Valencia was built. In its interior there is a civic centre, cafeteria and an auditorium with more than 400 seats for uses as a theatre, dance, concerts, cinema, conferences or congresses.

PHYSICAL DISABILITY

Car park: One reserved public space of 220 x 450 cm in Marià Cuber Street and another in Arcipreste Don Vicente Gallart Street.

Access: Entrance with 8 cm-high step, spanned by a mobile ramp with a 4.5% slope, 70 cm long and 120 cm wide. Interior doors with a foldable opening, with a handle located 76-141 cm high and with more than 120 cm-wide free passage.

Internal mobility: The building has three floors, all of them communicated through a staircase and lift. Aisles more than 120 cm wide. Doors in aisles with at least 90 cm-wide free passage.

Toilet: Both the ground floor and the first have adapted unisex toilets.

Lift: Lift between the ground and second floors with free passage of 80 cm and a 110 x 140 cm cabin.

Staircase: General staircase between the ground and second floors of one section per floor with 17 homogeneous steps with a 17 cm riser and a 31.5 cm tread.

Auditorium: Entrance through a double-leaf door opening to the outside, with a horizontal handle located 113 cm high. In the interior of the auditorium, accesses on both sides with a ramp with a 2.8% slope, 500 cm long and more than 120 cm wide. There are three reserved spaces in the first row for PRM. Aisles with free passage of more than 120 cm.

Restaurant, cafeteria, buffet: Located on the first floor. Access through two staircases and lift.

VISUAL IMPAIRMENT

Access: Entrance with 8 cm-high step.

Lift: Lift between the ground and second floors with contrasting buttons, in Braille and with embossing.

Auditorium: Inside the auditorium, accesses on both sides with a ramp with a 2.8% slope, 500 cm long and more than 120 cm wide.

HEARING IMPAIRMENT

Internal mobility: There are information panels with pictograms or short texts, with information about spaces and itineraries.